NOW thank we all our God,
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In whom his world rejoices;
Who from our mother’s arms
Hath blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.
When You Can’t Pray – Give Thanks

I once heard of a little boy who refused to say his evening prayers one night; not out of defiance, but simply because he couldn’t think of anything he wanted. He didn’t see much point in praying when there wasn’t anything to ask for.

When his mother heard his dilemma, she suggested he give thanks for all the things he had instead.

So the little boy got on his knees and thanked the Lord for everything he could think of – from his favorite toy to the fact he wasn’t blind like the boy down the street.

His evening prayers were longer that night, because he was thankful for more than he wanted.

We often have the opposite dilemma.

We find it hard to pray; not because we don’t have anything to ask for, but because we’re too disheartened to pray.

Our prayers seem to hit a stone ceiling; our prayers go unanswered for years; or we simply don’t receive the peace we used to enjoy in times of prayer. But maybe we can’t pray, because we’ve forgotten to be thankful.

Like this little boy, what if during this month of Thanksgiving, we took some time and turned our prayers into words of only thanks?

When you pray today, don’t ask for one single thing. JUST give thanks.

While you drive to work, list one thing after another you’re grateful for. And thank the Lord ONLY.

When you have a few quiet moments, think of things you know are gifts. And ONLY thank the Lord.

When you can’t pray . . . simply give thanks.

Your prayers might be longer than usual, because you find yourself thankful for more than you want.

Dear Friends,

This month dig a hole in your garden of thoughts. Into it put all your disillusionments, disappointments, regrets, worries, troubles, doubts and fears and forget.

Cover well with the earth of fruitfulness, water it from the well of contentment. Sow on top again the seeds of hope, courage, strength, patience and love.

Then, when the time of gathering comes, may your harvest be a rich and plentiful one.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Until next month . . . . Warmly, Carolyn
My dear Sisters and Brothers,

As you are aware, the theme that I have been carrying out this year is the various solemnities/feasts/memorials of the Blessed Virgin Mary that are celebrated each and every month of the liturgical/calendar year. The Blessed Mother has many titles by the various peoples and nations that venerate her. Taking on the example of the Mother of the Lord Jesus should entice each person of Christianity to immerge their beings, as she did, in the history of salvation in understanding and following the example of her Child. We are blessed because of her blessedness of bearing the Son of God to be the Son of Man.

The Memorial on November 21 commemorates the dedication of Saint Mary Church in Jerusalem that is located near the present day site of the Temple. The Memorial that we celebrate in the universal calendar of the Church is one of tradition that has been handed down to us throughout the centuries. When Mary was supposedly three years old, she was presented in the Temple by her parents, Saint Joachim and the Patroness of our Association, Saint Ann, and left there to be brought up, related in several of the apocryphal gospels, e.g., in the Protevangelium of James. In that document, we learn:

“'And the child was two years old, and Joachim said, ‘Let us take her up to the Temple of the Lord, that we may pay the vow that we have vowed, lest perchance the Lord send to us and our offering be not received’. And Ann said, ‘Let us wait for the third year, in order that the child may not seek for father or mother’. And Joachim said, ‘Let us so wait’. And the child was three years old; and they went up into the Temple of the Lord, and the priest received her and kissed her and blessed her, saying, ‘The Lord has magnified your name in all generations. In you, on the last of the days, the Lord will manifest His redemption to the children of Israel’. And he set her down upon the third step of the altar, and the Lord God sent grace upon her; and she danced with her feet and all the House of Israel loved her. And her parents went down marveling, and the priest blessed her, saying, ‘The Lord has magnified your name in all generations. In you, on the last of the days, the Lord will manifest His redemption to the children of Israel’. And he set her down upon the third step of the altar, and the Lord God sent grace upon her; and she danced with her feet and all the House of Israel loved her. And her parents went down marveling, and praising the Lord God because the child had not turned back. And Mary was in the Temple of the Lord as if she were a dove that dwelt there....”’

Contemplating the wonderful trust that the parents of Mary placed in Yahweh by leaving her in the hands of those in the Temple, we are reminded that we, too, should place all of our trust in the hands of Jesus, Mary’s Son. We do this primarily by entering our temple, our local church, by offering to God the Father the supreme and ultimate gift of Jesus, His Son and our Brother, every Sunday in the celebration of Holy Mass. We accomplish this by entering our very hearts every day by praying to Her Son in thanksgiving, supplication and praise. As we place our needs and gifts at these very special and unique prayer times of our week, we become more attuned to the very institution of what Mary has led us to be, the Body of Christ, both as a corporate structure and a spiritual reality. We become Church.

In relation to this Memorial, the Church offers us the reflection of Saint Augustine in one of his sermons taken from the Office of Readings of the day:

“Now, beloved, give me your whole attention, for you also are members of Christ; you also are the body of Christ. Consider how you yourselves can be among those of whom the Lord said: Here are my mother and my brothers. Do you wonder how you can be the mother of Christ? He himself said: Whoever hears and fulfills the will of my Father in heaven are my brother and my sister and my mother. As for being the brothers and sisters of Christ, we can understand this because although there is only one inheritance and Christ is the only Son, his mercy would not allow him to remain alone. It was his wish that we too should be heirs of the Father, and coheirs with himself.”

As Saints Ann and Joachim entrusted the Blessed Mother to God, may we too entrust our lives to Jesus, so that through her intercession, we may someday be members of the Holy Temple, the New Jerusalem!

Holy Mary, Mother of God and of all of us, pray for us!
Seize the present moment to say “THANK YOU”

Dear fellow members,

As we enter the season of Thanksgiving, Advent and Christmas, I dedicate this column to all those that we must and should be grateful to in our lives – our parents, families, teachers, those who helped in our lives in any way, and in our case ALL of our remarkable leaders, volunteers and employees who form the fabric of First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association of the United States of America. Also, I have especially noted all of our veterans, as you will read below.

Since our national gala weekend, (July 29-30, 2017) it has been my intention to try and attend in some manner every district’s 125th anniversary celebration. Thus, I have spent many weekends traveling (or skyping) to a district celebration of our 125th anniversary. So far, the only exception has been our beloved Pittsburgh, where I traveled instead to Wilkes-Barre, PA. To all my dear friends in Pittsburgh, I will see and thank you many times again at our regularly scheduled district gatherings.

I was heartily welcomed by all in all the districts I visited. As every gathering opened with Mass or prayer, the Pledge of Allegiance, and the National Anthem, detailed planning and love was evident at every event. One of my main purposes in attending is to publicly THANK and acknowledge the efforts of District presidents, other district officers, branch leaders and everyone who attended. We are very fortunate indeed to be blessed with truly REMARKABLE leaders at every level of our association from the members of the board, officers, employees and district and branch officers. “THANK YOU TO ALL!”

I would be remiss if I did not close by relating a fabulous opportunity that I had to thank our veterans and military at the Milwaukee, Wisconsin airport on returning from the Louise Yash District 125th anniversary celebration. When approaching security, I heard lots of people cheering and screaming at the other end of the corridor. I was indeed privileged to be present on the return of an HONOR FLIGHT. With flags waving and cheering from the crowd, we all fiercely applauded those veterans and military returning from a visit from Washington D.C. to visit war memorials. Many in the crowd were bikers, who follow the Honor Flights. We were told that this particular Honor Flight also escorted home a number of fallen soldiers. Before I rushed to my gate, I stopped and personally thanked each one of the veterans lined up for a photo, with tears welling in my eyes, for the honor and service of our military and nation. I thought of my own father, a World War II veteran, as my heart swelled with pride and gratitude for those who have served, so we can enjoy our lives in freedom and comfort.

Below are just a few photos I was able to take. Take a moment and THANK a veteran or current military person TODAY. Tomorrow may be too late.

Happy Thanksgiving to all our members, families and friends!

MARCH FOR LIFE

Our Presence at the 45th Annual Right to Life March on Friday, January 19, 2018 in Washington, DC is extremely important. First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association supports the position of the Pro Life Movement.

The FCSLA is once again offering free transportation from the FCSLA Home Office in Beachwood, OH for this very important trip. For the past few years we have filled two buses for this march. Again this year, we will reserve two buses for the March. Our organizations are proud to encourage our members along with many young students from area Catholic High Schools to participate. It is a very rewarding experience to actively participate and help relay this very important message of supporting the Right to Life mission.

Will you join us? Please call Kelly at the FCSLA home Office. Her phone number is 800-464-4642 EXT. 1051 or email her at Kelly@fcsla.org for details or questions and to reserve your seat on the bus before December 15th. The buses fill up quickly and seating is limited so don’t wait until the last minute to reserve your seat. You can also go to our website www.fcsla.org for a tentative itinerary for the trip.

If you would like to attend and are unable to join those leaving from the FCSLA Home Office, please look online for information and transportation. Call your local church or diocese, they may be able to help.

CONGRATULATIONS to everyone that sent in a drawing!! All of the drawings were AWESOME!

I was blown away by all the AMAZING drawings that came in. So were the judges – which were once again the home office staff. They had a very hard job... but they came through and chose the winners. Thank you!

I received 64 entries this year. Over double the entries that were submitted last year. I want to thank ALL of the parents for encouraging their children to submit a drawing. You have some VERY talented children. All of the submissions are WINNERS in my book! Everyone that sent in a submission received a gift and their drawing was returned to them, laminated. The grand prize winners in each age group also received a certificate and gift card.

Please check out all the drawings that were submitted on our website fcsla.org, under the Fraternal section and our Facebook (First Catholic Slovak Ladies Association) page. They were so awesome, I had to share all of them.

I hope you enjoy all the detail in each and every one!

I already have a couple theme ideas for next year. I am looking forward to next year’s submissions!

Take Action, Inspire Growth, Build Community was the theme of this year’s Symposium on Servant Leadership sponsored by Catholic Community Connection and held on October 6, 2017 at John Carroll University near Cleveland, OH.

Catholic Community Connection is a mission driven organization comprised of business leaders who believe strongly in their Catholic identity and who collaborate to serve the educational, financial, health care and social service needs of people in Northeast Ohio.

According to Marian Rubin, President, Catholic Community Connection, “We collaborated with three local Catholic colleges to bring together both students and business leaders, providing a forum for intergenerational connections. We were pleased that more than 100 participants attended, including 50+ students from nearby Ursuline College, Notre Dame College, and John Carroll University.”

An inspiring keynote was presented by Fr. Joseph E. Simmons, S.J. Next, the executive panel convened. It was led by John Stoner, President/CEO, The Village of St. Edward and board chair for Catholic Community Connection. He asked each of the panelists, “Tell us how you have served and inspired your team when faced with a challenge?” followed by, “Tell us how your faith influences your actions?”

Since Sr. Judith Ann Karam, CSA, Congregational Leader, Sisters of Charity of St. Augustine and Thomas J. Strauss, President & CEO, Sisters of Charity Health System were both unable to attend, they appeared by video. The rest of the panel included FSCLA, National President, Cynthia Maleski, Umberto Fedeli, President & CEO, Fedeli Group, and Terry Flanagan, Executive Director, Parish Outreach, Catholic Charities.

“We were honored to have Cynthia on the panel. She warmly shared her Catholic background with us, her family influence, and openly expressed how her Servant Leadership management style influences her daily decision making. We all enjoyed hearing about the history of the FCSLA too, and how it has grown to be a respected national organization,” said Marian Rubin.

President Maleski shared, “I was honored and humbled to share the podium with other distinguished Catholic business leaders, and discussed how the collaborative servant leadership model has served the associations and organizations well where I have worked in my professional life — from my position as General Counsel to The Mercy Hospital of Pittsburgh, to Insurance Commissioner and Cabinet Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, appointed by late Gov. Robert P. Casey, with unanimous confirmation of the State Senate, to Vice President of Compliance at Highmark Blue Cross Blue Shield, to the private practice of law and insurance consulting and now as President of FCSLA. My decision making process focuses on how we will benefit the greater good of our members, customers, and constituents. My advice is to always seize the moment to try and help others in their honest needs with integrity and respect. I am very fortunate to have been surrounded by wise, loving parents and family, and wonderful leaders who have helped me move forward as we have collaborated together.”

After a lively series of questions and answers, participants headed to their previously selected break-out session. Each session represented a different part of the theme, including one on taking action and finding your specific call to action and how to use it; another on inspiring growth and how this affects leading others; and finally one on breaking down barriers and finding the beauty in diversity.

The day ended with a reception, where students mingled with experienced professionals sharing insights from the afternoon event and continuing conversations from the break-out sessions.

1 cup chicken broth/stock
4 cloves garlic, crushed
1/2 cup butter, diced
Pinch of salt and pepper
(adjust to your tastes)
3/4 cup sour cream
1/2 cup - 1/4 cup hot milk
1/2 cup fresh grated parmesan cheese
(optional -- substitute with cheddar if your prefer)
Place the potatoes, broth, garlic and butter into a 6 qt. slow cooker. Season with salt and pepper; mix together and cover with lid. Cook on high setting for 4 hours or low setting for 7-8 hours, until very tender. Mash potatoes with a potato masher or electric beater. Stir the sour cream and milk through until well combined and creamy (add more milk if desired). Stir through the parmesan cheese. Keep covered, on low or warm setting until ready to serve.

ONE PAN JUICY HERB ROASTED TURKEY & POTATOES WITH GRAVY
1 whole, skin-on, bone-in turkey breast
(6 pounds)
4 tablespoons olive oil
2 tablespoons minced garlic (6 cloves)
4 tablespoons fresh chopped parsley leaves
1 tablespoon thyme leaves
1 teaspoon mild paprika
2 teaspoons kosher salt
1/2 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
2 tablespoons (extra) olive oil
5-6 small sweet potatoes
5-6 potatoes
Gravy:
1 cup pan juices
1 cup chicken broth or stock
1 tablespoon corn starch mixed with
2 tablespoons water
Extra salt to season, if desired.

Turkey and Potatoes:
Preheat the oven to 200 degrees. Place the turkey breast in a large roasting pan lined with parchment paper, skin side up. Pierce through the skin and flesh with a fork, all over the breast. Set aside.
In a small bowl, combine 4 tablespoons olive oil, garlic, parsley, thyme, paprika, salt, and pepper. Rub half of the mixture evenly all over the skin of the turkey breast. Loosen the skin and rub the seasoning underneath the skin and onto the meat. Pour the (extra) 2 tablespoons oil underneath the turkey breast onto the parchment paper. Turn the breast over, skin-side down.
Arrange the sweet potatoes and potatoes around the turkey, and rub them with remaining seasoning. Season with extra salt, if desired.
Cover pan completely with aluminium foil. Roast for 2 hours.
Remove pan completely, carefully uncover the turkey, and turn in the pan to be skin-side up. Change oven setting to grill or broil, and continue to roast the turkey for an additional 30-45 minutes, or until the skin is crispy and the turkey is completely cooked through.
When the turkey is done, remove from the oven, cover the pan with the same foil, and allow to rest at room temperature for 15 minutes. Slice and serve warm with gravy.

For the Gravy:
Pour out all the pan juices into a medium-sized pan and bring to a simmer. Mix in the broth and continue to simmer over low heat. Pour in the corn starch mixture while whisking continuously, until a nice and thick gravy begins to form.
